

Gangsters & Molls – Sail Past 2009 – June 13th

Hey – This beautiful doll and myself would be most honoured to have the pleasure of your esteemed company and your truly fine and feathered bird as we will be partaking in the exceptional festivities to commemorate the 30th year of existence of this outstandingly valued establishment.

All welcome to NSC's 30th Anniversary Sailpast Celebrations

Forthwith we will pay tribute to the life timers, after which we will boarding those floating contraptions to salute the Silk Hat (Commodore) out on the great splash, after which we will be returning to the most solid ground with the thought of wetting our mugs with some thirst-quencher from this Armory-type establishment in preparatory for the most exhilarating evening of the year. Flag and Burgee Presentations followed by the Commodore's Sailpast

And this beautiful doll and myself would be most honoured to continue this fine evening with the consumption of a cool beverage, as in juice of course, after which we will be ingesting some particularly incomparable dining of the Italian variety, after which we will be taking in some most elegant song and dance entertainment for your most satisfying enjoyment.

Cocktails, Italian Buffet Dinner followed by a Band and Dancing

Forthwith we will be needing you take some scratch and slipping them to the fella at the door to obtain the most needy pieces of paper to consent to your entry to this extraordinary evening of celebrations.

Advance tickets from the office or bar

And not to tip my mitt on the outcome of this excellent evening – but – there could be some maybe unexpected recompense for those whose floating contraptions will be representing the times. Moreover, there may be additional compensation for some of you mugs, dames, hoods and birds in the incomparable attire of the Gangster, Moll, Flapper era.

Prizes for best dressed boat, male, female and couple